THIS WEEK (22)

Following lunch the main order of business was the induction of Ron Holmes. Introduced by Allan Warrack and seconded by Marty Larson, Ron was inducted into the Edmonton Gyro Club by District Vlll 1st Lieutenant-Governor Jim Little. 1st Lieutenant-Governor Jim spoke briefly of the origin of Gyro, gave a short history of the Edmonton Club, administered the oath, and then

Little. 1st Lieutenant-Governor Jim spoke briefly of the origin of Gyro, gave a short history of the Edmonton Club, administered the oath, and then presented Ron with his Gyro Kit and Pin. Following this Ron was given the traditional welcome by each member.

Jim then related some of the highlights of the 1983 International Interim meeting in Clearwater, Florida, one of which was the reading of a message from our own Russ Carter.

President Tommy won the draw.

It pays to learn your lessons well. This year Fernando Valenzuela, star Mexican pitcher for the L.A. Dodgers, was awarded by an arbitration board One Million Dollars in salary for the 1983 season. Moaned Manager Tommy Lasorda, "We tried to teach him English last year and the only word he learned was "million!"
